From other sections of the State the reports are more favorable.

The Pulaski Citizen says a large wheat crop was planted in that region, and an abundant yield is anticipated.

The Dyersburg Gazette says the yield of wheat in Dyer county will be a third larger this season than it was last.

On Monday next, it is affirmed that Mr. Baldwin will move the expulsion of Miss Vinnie Ream from the Capitol, because she was instrumental, it is asserted, in hindering the conviction of

Mr. Johnson. As Miss Ream is engaged in sculpturing the late Mr. Lincoln, it is not possible that she can be disloyal. There must be something in the mere contact with his marble that would prevent any man or woman from doing aught not in consonance with the interests of God and humanity.

And, even supposing she might desire to hinder impeachment—what could she do? Has the mighty Radical Senate grown so weak that an insignificant sculptress can prevail against it? The expulsion of this woman from the Capitol would be a confession of meanness and spite of the most contemptible character. Warring upon women is not, how-ever, a new thing with Badicals. Butler gained far more renown for his success in battling against Southern women, than he did when his opponents were their sons and brothers. So of Bingham. His speech against Mrs. Surratt secured her hanging; but his speech against Johnson was followed by an acquittal. In view of these facts, it is more than probable that, if radicalism inaugurates wer against Miss Ream, it will meet with its usual success when its opponents are women. - Chicago Times. Grant made a stammering speech to a mob who called to congratulate him on his nomination, in which he flatly promsed, if elected, to be drunk during the

Though the military authorities have flatly refused to assign any cause for these proceedings. have flatly refused to assign any cause for these proceedings, it is well ascertained that they are the inception of a fresh attempt to ferret out the murderers of Ashburn. It is further known in this community, and we have strong reasons for the belief, that nobody is more fully aware of the fact than Gan. is more fully aware of the fact than Gen. exceed six hundred miles, so that the Meade and his subordinates at this point, that the parties seized and incarcerated the Pacific may be made in ten days cannot be connected with that unfortu

We have the very best of reasons for stating that these arrests have been concocted in the "still" sit-tings of the Loyal League, and that the suspicions advanced are of so flimsy and over long distances beyond the starting tings of the Loyal League, and that the suspicions advanced are of so flimsy and improbable a character as would fail to arrest the serious consideration of a milmen, notoriously ignorant of law, the rules of evidence, and entertaining a supreme disregard of the lives and liberties of any one, save themselves. And in the name of the same, we earnestly invoke the attention and aid of President Johnson. This appeal is not made without strong cause. It is time that the bitterness, the indignation, the deep resentment excited in the hearts of the people by a weak and incompetent ruler should cease. A peaceful, law-abiding and defenseless people should be protected against suborced perjurers and prostitutes, and the Chief Magistrate of the country should see to it that citizens shall not be driven to desperation by wrong and per-

Southside Criticism of Grant-If Barlow and Belmont, and the other wise men of the Manhattan Club, do not turn their city organ from its present course, it will ruin all the chances of any Democratic candidate for the Presi-dency. The Radical Double-Faced Platform. The Chicago Republican platform on the two leading questions of the day-the money question and the negro suffrage question—is a thing of two faces, yea, we may say, of four. On the money question it has a face looking East and face looking West; and on the negro suffrage question it has a face looking North and a face looking South. We have shown that on the national debt this double-faced platform may be claimed by Butler as calling for greenbacks, and by Greeley as demanding gold for the fivetwenties. On negro suffrage thus reads this two-faced platform: "That the guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained; while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly be longs to the people of those States. defenseless parties before a military commission, three hundred miles away from the witnesses who could establish their innocence, against the false and suborned rights." Congress, having forced universal suffrage upon the late rebel States, is bound to maintain it over them; but Ohio and New York last fall, and Michi gan this spring, having each by a heavy popular majority repudiated universal negro suffrage, Congress will not touch them nor do anything for their colored populations. Mr. Senator Sumner's bill providing by set of Congress. providing by act of Congress for universal over all the States must be held back for a more convenient season, and Wendell Phillips and his Radical pioneers are left to mourn over or revolt sgainst the treachery of the Chicago Convention. The genuine equal rights Radicals North and South, if not double dealers them-selves with Sambo, will show their scorn and contempt of double dealing Repubcans by putting an independent Presidential ticket in the field without loss of time .- New York Herald. It has been frequently asserted that the result of impeachment would be the "execution of the popular verdict." Perhaps the assertion is proven correct The result of impeachment has executed the popular verdict upon a number of well-known political scalawags. It has killed Stanton, killed Ben Wade, killed Butler, Bingham, Boutwell, Ashley, besides putting some others in the ". of ultimate extinction. Perhaps the deadest man of the lot is poor old Ben-Wade. Condemned by the people of his State, dismissed from his sent in the Senate, rejected by the convention of his party, and defeated in his aspirations to the Executive chair, the impeachment business has done for him what it was intended to do for A. Johnson-it has consigned him to political oblivion for-whole four years of his term. His language was that his "record in the past should be the guide of his future." Good heavens, what a threat!

Jim Nye, aligs Senator Nye, is said to be awaring mad that nobody offered to bribe him to vote against conviction of the President. If wanted, he could have been had for one sixth of the sum that Pomeroy wanted.
